The Worshipful Master, Senior and Junior Wardens in Prince Charlie jacket, white tux shirt and black bow tie, kilt. Other Officers white tux shirt, black bow tie and kilt. Sidelines are welcome.

You don't have to be Scottish to wear a kilt. Real men and Masons wear aprons and kilts. They are proud of both.

If you don't have a kilt and want to rent one there are several stores that rent them. If you want to purchase a kilt be advised lead time may be 4-10 weeks depending on kilt and manufacturer. There are Masonic Kilts.

We would love to have our District Deputy Grand Masters of Districts 22 & 23 attend.

Brothers, you don't have to attend in kilt, however, it would be nice to see many different Lodges and Districts represented.

A light lunch will be served following the degree. Haggis will not be served, unless you are preparing and serving it.
